

NANDISWARALAYAM - BENDI

Historical evidences establish the fact that this temple was founded by Cholas. It's a rockcut ancient temple with beautiful architecture and the main-temple architecturally resembles Someswaralayam of Srimukhalingam. This temple is situated at a distance of 60 km. from Srikakulam near Bendi gate.

SHIVASAGAR BEACH - AKKUPALLI

The Akkupalli beach is situated at a distance of 75 kms from Srikakulam nearby Palasa. One of the most interesting tourist spot surrounded with Coconut trees. The tranquility of the beach here gives pleasant feeling to the tourists.

Balarama is said to have consecrated five siva lingas on the banks of river Nagavali and the third one is reputed to the Sangameswaraswamy idol at Sangam. Which is at a distance of 70 kms. from Srikakulam. The name of the place itself is derived from the confluence of the three holy rivers Nagavali, Vegavathi, Suvanamukhi. It is an important Saiva Temple.

SANGAMESWARA SWAMY TEMPLE - SANGAM

