

GULLA SEETARAMA PURAM

Gullaseetharamapuram is a quiet village located at a distance of 9 kms. from business and industrial town of Rajam. The famous Seetharamaswamy temple of this village was built by the kings of Bobbili some 350 years ago.

The idol of presiding deity is unique as it is carved out a single black granite stone. It shows Seethamma sitting on the lap of Ramaswamy. The main temple bears an impressive array of beautiful sculpture and the prakara mandapa is quite inspiring with its sculpture and carvings.

All Rights Reserved with INTACH - Srikakulam

Designed by M. Srinivasa Rao, INTACH Photographer

Cell : 9440759812, Ph : 227001 (08942)