

MANDASA FORT

The residential palace of the erstwhile zamindars of Mandasa is a picturesque building. It is built by Lakshmana Raja Mani Deo in 1779. This palace known as the Mandasa Fort is an inspiring structure standing laudably and majestically, speaking of the grand year of bygone era. The beautiful wall paintings inside the fort are very attractive and appear to be grand new.

VASUDEVAMURTHY ALAYAM MANDASA

This very beautiful temple was built by the erstwhile Zamindars of Mandasa – Raja Harihara Mani deo. The presiding deity of the temple Vasudevamurthy is carved out of red-sand rock. We find the temple adorned with myriad forms of the Hindu Gods and Goddesses. A unique feature of the temple which attracts our attention is the presence of erotic figures in various postures adorning the walls of the temple.

YENDALA MALLIKARJUNA SWAMY ALAYAM RAVIVALASA

It is one of the most venerated pilgrim centres of Srikakulam district. Legends trace its origin to Treta Yuga. An interesting aspect of the linga is that it is believed to be growing in height with the passage of time. Hence no roof is built to shelter the linga..
